Each participant, supervising adult (if any*) and coach (if any*) must inspect and accept the conditions of the pole vaulting facility before the participant engages in any pole vaulting activities, including warm-ups and competitive jumps. If at any time the conditions are or become unacceptable to a participant, a supervising adult or a coach, that participant must immediately stop his or her participation. Pole vaulting is inherently dangerous and a participant's failure to adhere to all safety practices may result in injury to that participant. Participant, supervising adult and coach waive liability and agree to hold harmless the event organization, the Most Intense Technique Pole Vault Club and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology for any injury caused by the participant's own negligence or misfortune or accidental injury.

*Each participant must have a supervising adult or a coach present to participate.
